Year-End News Review

1976: Growing Spring Valley Area Completes Community Plan

January

The year promised to be active from a news point of view—if the beginning was any indication.

As the year began Spring Valley residents learned, in the first issue of the BULLETIN in the new year that electric rates were going up. That was to be a forerunner of utility rates in Spring Valley and the rest of the county.

A compilation of the year end population showed that Spring Valley could boast 6,562 more souls than were listed when the previous year started. In all 37,026 persons lived in the community. Lemon Grove, meanwhile, decreased by 903 to a lower total of 22,356.

Valle de Oro got approval for setting up community planning organization goals.

The area involved includes Casa de Oro, Spring Valley, La Presa and Rancho San Diego.

Came the news that Supervisor Dick Brown would not seek office again. "I've had it with politics," he said. He had served 11 years in elective offices including El Cajon's council. As a "lame duck" supervisor, he expressed pride with his Integrated Planning Organization by which planning elements were restructured and better organized.

Grossmont Union High School District shuffled boundaries and converted some Valhalla students and Casa de Oro residents to Monte Vista and some residents of the western boundaries of Monte Vista were transferred to Mt. Miguel.

Michelle Taylor, 29, a resident of a mobilehome at the Lamplighter Park on Jamacha blvd., died in a fire that started in her bedroom.

Hansen's Pond, on Jamacha blvd., long a dumping place for stolen vehicles and other items gave up an auto to the Sheriff's Search and Rescue Team. The car was a 1965 Ford Fastback which had been reported stolen in 1974.

Seven units of various fire organizations responded to a 15-acre grass fire in Casa de Oro south of Highway 94 and east of Kenora dr.

$150,000 in HUD and CETA funds will be used to clean out the drainage channels in various places in the area called the Spring Valley Flood Plain (where no flood has ever occurred).

February

Good news for students and bad for taxpayers was the announcement that an 11th high school would be built in Spring Valley by the Grossmont Union High School District. The threat of nine schools going on double sessions in 1978 was cited as the need. A revenue bond device is being planned by which voter approval

Youth's Crime Life Lasts One Hour

A 17-year old Lemon Grove youth's life of crime as an auto thief lasted exactly one hour in La Mesa Monday night.

S. Joseph Edward Johnston of 8216 Orchard ave., La Mesa reported his VW stolen at 5:15 p.m.

A La Mesa police officer spotted the car at Palm and University at 6:15 p.m.

Johnston said the car had a dead battery and was out of gas when he parked it at the rear of his residence.

The youth admitted he pushed it to get it started after putting a small amount of gas in it.

Cement Topping

A bag of cement was poured over the truck owned by Bert E. Junker, a roofing contractor of 9702 Osage st., Spring Valley on Thursday. He told sheriff's deputies that the paint was severly damaged as a result. He did not estimate the cost of a repaint job.

1976 Wrap Up for Lemon Grove

Incorporation Makes Headlines Throughout Year in Lemon Grove

January

Lemon Grove greeted the new year with news that its population had declined by 903 residents during the last five years. A special 1975 census recorded 22,356 residents.

The town got its own freeway exit as the Lemon Grove Avenue bridge and Highway 94 access system was pressed into service.

While La Mesa city officials were eyeing Vista La Mesa, Lemon Grove incorporation proponents were hoping that a February Board of Supervisors hearing would result in the decision to set June 8 as the date when voters would make Lemon Grove a "Bicentennial city."

Community social service outlet EPIC announced it had been cleared as a non-profit organizations by the IRS.

Lemon Grove's general plan calling for beautification and loss of parking space led zoning administrators to deny Accent Cedar lumber company from stacking its wares along a strip of land between Main st. and the SD&AE railroad tracks.

Principals Hal Brogan, Palm Jr. High, and Wiley Cornelius, Mt. Vernon Elementary, announced retirement plans, effective in June.

February

An eight-day rain storm produced 5.65 inches of rain locally and ended a crop-killing drought in Southern California.

The February incorporation hearing was postponed until March by the County Board of Supervisors.

The "Roadrunners" car club of Lemon Grove announced it was no longer participating in the weekly Thursday night "car cruises" on Broadway, following growing incidence of reckless driving, excessive drinking and littering.

Paul Bethel, operator of Foxy Lady tavern, announced that topless girls would soon be replaced by live band music at one of the first beer bars in the community to feature bare-breasted ladies.

Two Lemon Grove 7-11 stores were robbed on consecutive nights. The 3834 Massachusetts ave store was robbed by a young duo of $25, while next night a sole robber got $40 with the aid of a gun at the store on Palm and Imperial.

School board member John Linn announced plans to move into an experimental solar heated home in Spring Valley which, among other things, would necessitate his resignation from the board.

Porno outlet PW's Adult Book Store, 1501 Skyline dr., was burglarized of $1,315 in books, films and a curious array of contraptions.

March

Car cruises continued on Broadway despite lack of car club sponsorship and bolstered police patrol. One Thursday evening saw 54 citations for a variety of offenses.

Mt. Miguel Booster Club sponsored a flea market, first fundraiser organized for the high school's community swimming pool since the ill-fated dinner-auction gala which flopped before its scheduled November date.

Objections raised by La Mesa city officials, still eyeballing Vista La Mesa, delayed a Lemon Grove incorporation election approval from the Board of Supervisors and eliminated the chance for a "Bicentennial city."

Lemon Grove's fire department acquired the "Jaws of Life", a hydraulic tool able to cut and pry victims out of vehicle wrecks in minutes.

Guest also was re-elected as president of the Chamber of Commerce. Other officers elected: Dr. Griffith Clark, veterinarian, vice president; Wally Knutson, realtor, secretary, and Carl Lacki, BoA manager, treasurer.

April

It was a good turn out at the April 3 Old Time Days Parade, with grand marshal and rodeo star Casey Tibbs. More than 180 units participated in the parade which was televised by Mission Cable TV for the first time.

Rain delayed the opening of a carnival at LG Jr. High to help pay parade expenses. While the carnival turned a profit, as did a square dance, a Jamul horse show benefit failed and left the OTD committee with a debt.

H. Warren Buckner became president of the Lemon Grove School Board, succeeding Leonard Klee. Jim Dorman became vice president, Henry Reinecke clerk.

The board selected Stewart Fisher as principal of Palm Jr. High, Hal Brogan's replacement after the school year.

May

The governor visited Lemon Grove in May — sort of. State Senator Jim Mills, two heartbeats away from the governorship of California, attended a Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce Installation ceremony at a time when Edmund Brown was out campaigning and Lt. Governor Mervin Dymally was also out of state. That made Mills acting governor.

The Lemon Grove Jr. High band, under director Harry Weisgerber, won a fifth place trophy at the annual National City Maytime Band Review. Helix High won Sweepstakes.

Veterinarian Dr. Robert Burns was named Lemon Grove chairman of the S. I. Hayakawa U. S. Senate campaign.

Retiring principals Hal Brogan and Wiley Cornelius were "roasted" at a testimonial dinner thrown by the Lemon Grove School District.

Outdoor Decorations Contest Winners Announced in SV

The Aiken's yard, windows and doors were decorated and lighted for the holidays.

The couple won the first place trophy in the residential category in addition to the Grand Trophy.

Second place residence was that of Mr. and Mrs. Arsenio Alagar, 968 Galapago, Spring Valley.

First place in trailer park entries were Mr. and Mrs. James Sipes, 1815 Sweetwater rd., Space 159. Second place trophy went to the James and Carol Bowling mobilhome, Space 32 in the Lamplighter Trailer Court, 10767 Jamacha blvd.

The window display at Jimmy's Family Restaurant, 9809 Campo rd. was judged the best business entry. A freehand drawing by son Randy won Bert Hodge of Hodge Insurance, 9772 Campo rd., a second place business finish.

Although winners were notified, trophies were held for engraving. Residents were to contact the Chamber to enter.

Loot is $150

While Jackie A. Stilson was at work on Thursday, a burglar went through a window screen and took $150 cash that had been left in the bedroom. Stilson lives at 3328 Central ave., Spring Valley.

MOTHERS MARCH — Merrilee A. Buchanan, right, of the L.G. branch of the BoA, sets up March of Dimes shop at the bank with Mrs. Bill Muncey alongside. Muncey is Mothers March chairman for the SD-Imperial Chapter. Buchanan is treasurer of the L.G. element.

The campaign gets underway Saturday but the Mothers March comes later in the month. The Mothers March is the most important part of the campaign, it was said, and volunteers are needed. The volunteer number is 284-1166. Contributions are used primarily in research in birth defects.

LG City Committee Invites Opponents to Jan. 5 Meet

A large community turnout is anticipated for the January 5 informational meeting held by the committee working to incorporate Lemon Grove.

It is held at 7:30 p.m. in Lemon Grove Jr. High auditorium, School ln. at Central ave.

Lemon Grove residents seeking more information about the proposal on the March 8 local ballot and those who have what they regard as viable arguments opposing incorporation are urged to attend.

Attorney Jim Dorman, a member of the committee, said there are already rumors floating around town as to the possible harmful effects of a locally governed community, all of which are unfounded, he says.

"I haven't heard an opposing argument based on any logic yet," he challenged.

Paul Copeland Runs For School Board

Paul Copeland has become the newest, and probably youngest, candidate in the history of the Lemon Grove School Board. He is 22 and a public administrator major at S.D. State U.

He was educated in L.G. elementary schools, Mt. Miguel High school and Grossmont College.

Copeland is instructor of multiple-handicapped children in the L.M.-S.V. School District. He lives at 3881 Massachusetts ave., La Mesa. That area is in the L.G. School District. Copeland claims that the Lemon Grove School District does not open its books to the public.

Copeland

"The apparently unofficial practice of hindering citizens to full access to budget information has got to go," he said.

"As a taxpayer in the district I find reluctance to disclose district finances reprehensible." He said it took three days of continuous pressure to obtain a copy of the budget.

"My experience (6 months) with handicapped children has provided me with a unique outlook on educational needs. I alone would be able to bring to the board a much needed education perspective."

The election is March 8.

The DIMMER VIEW

The After-Christmas Gift

There's a poignant holiday story that you'll want to know about.

It concerns a Lemon Grove young lady and it happened last week.

The incident was born of adversity because the victim is a 20-year old deaf mute. She was born with her afflictions.

It all started when she was burglarized. What did the thief get? A nondescript, small-screen, black and white television. It was so old that the serial number was missing. But to her, it was the contact with the outside world—the world beyond her little house in the Monterey Heights area of Lemon Grove.

She laboriously explained—in writing—her loss to the Sheriff's Lemon Grove office. But officers knew finding an old, almost valueless set was an exercise in futility.

The detective assigned to the case, Rick Lindsay, promised to have a set back to her for Christmas. He would ask fellow officers to contribute to a fund by which a replacement could be made.

Meanwhile, employees of the La Mesa office of the California Department of Motor Vehicles had let it be known that they would aid someone needy in Lemon Grove. To Detective Lindsey it was a pretty good matchup. A couple of DMV employes visited the home of the burglary victim.

Dick Stoner, assistant manager of the LM DMV facility and Norma Wendleton, in charge of the group's Christmas project, decided to take over the young lady for the holidays. It was a splendid choice.

So on December 22, at the office's traditional Christmas lunch—only half the staff was there. The rest had to serve the public—she was guest of honor. The group had acquired a replacement television set. Included in gifts to her was some cash, some canned goods to fill her larder, and some items for her little house.

The girl appeared to be overjoyed—but her tears were not altogether tears of happiness. Between the time the personnel of the LM DMV decided to adopt her for Christmas and the giving of the gifts, the recipient had been notified by her landlord that he had sold her home and that the new owner wanted possession of the house on January 1.

If anyone with all of his God-given faculties was told at Christmastime that he was being evicted in less than two weeks, the experience would be traumatic. To a deaf-mute it posed an almost insurmountable crisis.

One interested party got her some legal advice. She may be able to keep her home a couple more weeks by demanding a court order. Others are on the lookout for a house for her. The price must be low. Her budget for rent is less than $225 a month. More than that and it comes out of food.

If you have reason to go to the Department of Motor Vehicles in the next few days for licensing purposes, don't be surprised if the clerk asks if you know of a house for rent.

By the way, if you know of a small house suitable for a very quiet tenant call Detective Lindsay at 236-2902; Max Goodwin at 469-0101, or Norma Wendleton, at 461-2100.

We call it Operation Bobbi and anyone's help is to be considered a special after-Christmas gift.

Suers Turn on Lawyers

The October 25 issue of MONEYSWORTH newspaper carries a story on malpractice—with a turn.

The item with an Oakland dateline tells how the malpractice business has returned to haunt those who it says started it all.

"The malpractice craze has come full circle and is now attacking the group of professionals who started it: lawyers.

"Increasingly disgruntled clients are winning fat settlements of up to $26 million by suing former attorneys.

"Most lawyers now consider liability insurance essential but find premiums skyrocketing 500 per cent annually in some states and the number of companies willing to sell coverage shrinking.

"Insurance companies say they're paying out so much in claims that lawyer liability policies lose money despite rate hikes."

Guard Dog Spoils Youth's Christmas

It was going to be a fun Christmas evening with friends, but it ended with a trip to the hospital and more than 100 stitches instead.

Randy Dale, 16, of 2316 Golden ave., Lemon Grove, went to the Bowlero Bowl, 7065 Broadway, on Saturday night to visit with friends. Dale, a frequent visitor, is a member of two bowling leagues.

As he walked toward the entrance door he was attacked by a guard dog which had escaped from a nearby storage yard.

Dale was bitten several times in the throat and lower face by the dog. He was alone when attacked.

Friends came to his aid shortly after the attack. Lemon Grove Fire and sheriff's men responded to the call and administered first aid.

The youth was taken to Grossmont Hospital where he received numerous stitches—more than 100, according to his mother, Mrs. Kennett Evans.

Brush with Death

Some of the wounds were deep and came close to killing him, Mrs. Evans said. Lowering his chin protected him and perhaps saved his life.

A young child might have been less fortunate, she said.

The dog was on duty in the storage yard of Camperland RV Center. According to Michael Ames, spokesman for Sentry Security Guard Dogs which owned the animal, earlier in the day someone removed a box covering an opening under the fence at a natural drainage ditch. The dog apparently escaped through the opening.

Camperland hired the guard dog recently as a last-straw attempt to prevent after-hour theft.

"The community should be made aware of the fact that more businesses are resorting to the use of guard dogs to protect their property," said Lemon Grove Fire Chief Robert Adams while discussing the Dale incident.

Sentry employees retrieved the animal after the incident. He was still roaming in the Bowlero parking lot.

"If a dog escapes, we never put him back into service in the same area," Ames said.

The dog was placed under County Animal Regulation quarantine, a procedure necessitated by law.

It will be returned to service, Ames said.

Freeze

Ames suggests the best way to handle a confrontation with an escaped guard dog is to "freeze—stand still," since the dog is trained to respond to movement.

Mrs. Evans said the family was uncertain what legal action they would take, but indicated there were plans to file suit.

BEST SPEAKER — Roberta Lyons, daughter of Doris Stayrook, 8106 Brampton st., Spring Valley, was chosen district winner of the V.F.W. Voice of Democracy Broadcast and Scriptwriting contest held at the U.S. Grant Hotel December 18. She is a junior at Mt. Miguel High school. Her prize was a 4-day trip to Sacramento and an interview with Gov. Brown.

If she wins the State contest she will go to Washington for the National competition for a prize of $10,000.

CDA Court's January Filled

January plans for Court Teresa of Avila, Catholic Daughter of America, were announced this week.

The first meeting of the new year is held Tuesday at St. John of the Cross Church auditorium.

Lecturer Mrs. John Bentz will lead the group in the Recitation of the Rosary at 7 p.m. Regent Mrs. Maurice McCormick will preside at the business meeting. Plans will be made for the court's charity projects for the coming year.

Members and friends planning to attend the court's "Bonanza Coffee" will meet at the Lemon Grove Alpha Beta supermarket parking lot at 9:15 a.m., Wednesday, January 5.

The monthly brown bag lunch and game party will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, January 26 at the home of Mrs. Gus Stevens.

Postmaster Earns Executive Award

Nate Hale, Lemon Grove Postmaster, was awarded the U. S. Postal Service Key Executive Award.

The award signifies that the recipient is regarded as the top Postmaster of the county in efficiency of operation and productivity of the facility.

Area Funeral Services

Lester L. Freeman

Services were held Thursday for Lester L. Freeman, 80, who died December 19 in Veterans Administration Hospital. Burial was at Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery.

He lived in La Mesa at 4543 Date st. and was known in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley areas for his interest in the communities. He urged the two communities to unite and to annex to La Mesa.

He was La Mesa's city clerk for 30 years before retiring in January 1962. He later ran for the office of mayor and for city council but was defeated for both offices.

He also served as La Mesa's deputy tax collector and deputy treasurer and finance officer.

For 15 years he was a member of the Grossmont Union High School District board of trustees.

He was past master of La Mesa Masonic Lodge 407 F&AM and past director of the La Mesa Rotary club. He was active in the Mt. Helix High 12 club, San Diego Scottish Rite Bodies and La Mesa American Legion Post 282.

He is survived by his wife, Maria; three daughters and four sisters; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Guy Hines

Services were held Friday at Santa Sophia Catholic Church for Guy William Hines, 52, of 3614 S. Granada st., Spring Valley.

Hines, employed as a general service manager at Chas Myres Industrial Truck, died Wednesday, December 22 in a hospital.

He was active for several years in youth athletics in Spring Valley, having been a past president of the Valle de Oro Little League and a past vice president of the Spring Valley Pony League.

Conrad Lemon Grove Mortuary handled funeral arrangements. Burial followed Friday services in Greenwood Memorial Park.

Survivors include his wife, Lucille; four sons, including Kenneth, Dennis, Terry and Daniel of Spring Valley; a daughter, Wanda of Spring Valley; a grandson, Nathan of Spring Valley; his father; a brother and a step-brother.

Harold Carley

Memorial services were held Monday for Harold F. Carley, 72, of 10770 Jamacha blvd., Spring Valley. The services were held in the First United Methodist Church of San Diego followed by inurnment in El Camino Memorial Park.

Carley, who died December 23 in a hospital, was a San Diego grocery store owner, a native of Iowa and a county resident 30 years. He was a member of the Twirl Round Dance Club.

Surviving are his wife, Elizabeth M.; a son; four brothers; a sister; three grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The family suggests contributions to the American Cancer Society.

Entombment with military honors followed Tuesday services at Cypress View Mortuary's Chapel of Prayer for retired Army Col. William Gritz.

Lemon Grove Lodge No. 736, of which he was a member, handled services.

Gritz, 85, lived at 2211 Massachusetts ave., Lemon Grove. He died December 21 in a hospital.

A native of New York, he had lived in the county 30 years.

Col. Gritz enlisted in the Army at 17 and was stationed in Cuba, the Philippines and the Panama Canal.

During World War II he served as finance officer at the Army station in St. Louis, Missouri.

He was a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies of San Diego and the Disabled American Veterans.

Survivors include his wife, Evelyne; a son and three grandchildren.

T. Devereaux

Funeral services for retired realtor Theodore C. Devereaux were held Thursday, December 23 in Greenwood Mortuary.

Devereaux, 80, of 3780 Massachusetts ave., Lemon Grove, was associated with Devereaux & Scull Realtors and was actively involved in a number of land development projects including Horizon Hills of La Mesa, Rutherford Estates in Million Hills, Yacht Club Terrace on Point Loma, and Hermosa Terrace in La Jolla.

A past pesident of the San Diego Board of Realtors, he was a World War 1 veteran and a member and past president of the American Legion Post 364.

He is survived by a stepson, Robert Devereaux of Lemon Grove, and three cousins.

Offices Combined

Establishment of an Equal Opportunity Management Office combining all S.D. County Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action programs has been approved by the S.D. County Board of Supervisors.

Scheduled to begin operations January 1 the new office was designed to develop a coordinated comprehensive program for the county, a spokesman said.

The office will include an affirmative action unit, a staff for the Commission on the Status of Women and possibly a Standing Committee on the Handicapped, and will be under the jurisdiction of the county's principal assistant chief administrative officer.

Live Trees Offered Home After Holidays

San Diego Ecology Centre is expanding its Christmas tree conservation program to include accepting donations of living trees to plant in selected areas throughout San Diego County.

Residents who bought live trees this year, but do not have a place to plant them after the holidays are encouraged to donate the tree to the Ecology Centre which will find them a proper home.

The trees will be planted in local parks, campgrounds, wildlife refuges and other recreational areas.

Live tree drop-off points nearby are the City of El Cajon Public Works Facility, 1050 Vernon Way, El Cajon; and the La Mesa Public Works Facility at 8152 Commercial ave.

Living trees will be accepted Monday through Friday, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. in most cases.

The contributions are tax-deductible, says the Centre.

The live tree service is the second phase of the Centre's five year old "Give Earth a Gift" program for recycling Christmas trees.

Cut trees will still be in prominence this year, so the tree mulching effort will continue through the sponsorship of six volunteer service groups.

Cut trees will be cut into mulch which will be used as a natural fertilizer by CALTRANS workers who will spread it along the landscape of the area's highways.

12 Here Earn Honors at SDSU

1,500 seniors will graduate from S.D. State U. December 30. 340 of them are eligible to graduate with honors. 69 of those are from the East County area. Of those, 12 are from the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area.

Eligibility is determined by grade point average (GPA), computed primarily on work done at SDSU. For example, a 4.00 GPA is equal to a straight "A" average and a 3.00 is equal to a "B" average, and so on.

According to university policy, honors are divided into three categories: first, highest honors, awarded to students with a 3.75 or higher average; second, high honors, awarded to those with a 3.50 or better average; and third, honors, bestowed on students graduating with at least a 3.25 grade point average.

Highest honors — Spring Valley: Kimberly Klobnak, liberal studies; Sharon Lett, psychology; Michael Meyer, geography, and Darlene Myers, child development.

High honors — Spring Valley, Lorraine Bartolome, social welfare. Lemon Grove, Linda Hansell, music.

Honors — Spring Valley: Carol-Lynn Lynch, liberal studies; Laurie Cristal, liberal studies, and Sandra McPherson, physical education. Lemon Grove — Catherine Bordenaro, liberal studies; Lowell Brown, Jr., geography and George Thomasson, marketing.

Jan. 5 Meeting

Office to Open

In the meantime, the committee is expected to take over office space at 7748 Broadway next week as its headquarters. A phone manned by volunteers will field calls about the incorporation measure throughout the next two months. Beginning next week, citizens with questions may call 469-2149 for answers.

Fact sheets on the measure will be distributed at the January 5 meeting. Committee members will be on hand to answer questions and comment on issues raised by opponents.

Also, retiring County Supervisor Dick Brown, who has advocated Lemon Grove incorporation since interest was renewed in the measure two years ago, will be asked to attend the meeting. Dorman said either Brown or one of his staff assistants are expected to attend.

Meanwhile, candidates for Lemon Grove's first city council (a five-person body elected at large) continue to file for that election before today's deadline.

At press time, Tuesday, residents had taken out filing papers at the county office of the Registrar of Voters, seven more than had a week ago.

But only seven of those 26 had completed filing requirements which include gathering 20 signatures from local voters. They were: Lester Reese, 2270 Washington; Leroy Maxwell, 2840 Olive st.; Maxine Grove, 7154 Mt. Vernon; Wynell McReynolds, 7112 Rosemary ln.; Leo Bodin, 2770 Dennis ln.; and Brian Cochran, 3280 Olive st.

New candidates announcing intentions to file include Richard J. Thomson, 1805 Primera st.; Dorthe L. DuBois, 2212 Lawton dr.; W. Dale Bailey, 8216 Adams; Clyde A. West, 7076 Casa ln.; Daniel R. White, 3280 Olive st.; T. A. Parker, Jr., 1616 Woodrow ave.; and Emily J. Wallingford, 1934 Main st.

Huebsch Survivors Say Thank You

Dear Editor:

We wish to express our grateful appreciation and thanks to the Rev. Frederick M. Bradley, Pastor of United Congregational Church and the friends and associates of Mildred Huebsch for the flowers and contributions, and many kindnesses shown during her recent illness and demise. Thank each of you very much.

Reader Outraged

Dear Editor,

I wish to thank you for your editorial "The Prison Exodus". I was truly outraged to learn of this Senate Bill SB 42, and as you can see by the copy enclosed, I took your suggestion and wrote my Assemblyman.

Thanks again for your good editorials and keeping us "good guys" posted.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Delmer C. Barbee

Pat on the Back

Aloha Editor:

I'm so very thankful to be receiving the Review and Bulletin newspapers here in Honolulu. News of my old home town interests me.

What interests me even more are your right-on editorials via "The Dimmer View." They're excellent. Even the ones I totally disagree with, which, by the way, average out to only one a year. The other 51 really speak to me and encourage my involvement with my nation.

Keep your journalistic honesty. I applaud you for never compromising. The papers come by slow banana boat, like 1½ months after they're published, but I still learn by your concerns-in-print. Aloha to all.

Letter from Gov. Brown

"Dear California Tapayers:

Thank you for the letters on property taxes. I share your concern for the rising cost of government. I would answer you personally, but in view of the hundreds of thousands of letters you have sent me on the subject, the last thing I want to do is spend another $40,000 of your money on postage. Instead, I have decided to express my thoughts in this open letter.

During the coming weeks I will carefully evaluate the various property tax proposals now circulating in Sacramento. My principal concern is to insure prompt but honest property tax relief.

In my judgment, this will not come by raising sales and income taxes to reduce taxes on property. Such an approach merely changes the form but not the substance.

Real property tax reform must include the following four fundamental principles.

1) Legal restraints on local and state spending.

2) Removal of unreasonable state mandates which force excessive spending at the local level.

3) A split of the tax role by a constitutional amendment so that business pays its historical share of local property taxes.

4) Targeting state property tax relief to those homeowners hardest hit and most in need.

I would welcome and encourage any additional thoughts you might have.

Sincerely,
EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California"

Historic Sites Course Offered at Grossmont

The Wilderness Land Study Tour of Baja, open to Grossmont students and non-enrolled adults over 18 years, will include visits to the palm mission of San Ignacio, Santa Rosalia, Indian rock paintings in Canyon Montevideo and other, less historical sites.

The 9-day tour starting January 8, will cover 1500 miles and the total cost is $392 which covers transportation, admission fees, food and lodging.

Application deadline is January 3. For specifics call 465-1700 and ask for tape A-8. Don Shannon is conductor.

KCBQ No. 1 in Survey

KCBQ was the No. 1 radio station in S.D. County for the 22nd straight quarter with a cumulative listening audience of 386,000 a week, a recent Pulse survey showed.

With 13 per cent of the market, the station also reported a 47 per cent increase in the number of listeners aged 25 to 34.

Park Welcomes 2 Millionth Visitor for '76

San Diego's Sea World welcomed its 2 millionth visitor of 1976 recently. The welcome established an annual attendance record at the 12-year-old family entertainment park.

Honors were bestowed upon Lee Arneson of Wisconsin, who pased through Sea World's turnstile at 11:15 a.m. November 30. She was accompanied by her husband, John, and two young nephews, Scott and Aaron Rybar of Pt. Loma.

The group received large stuffed animals, lunch at Sea World's Hawaian Punch Pavilion, dinner at Atlantis Restaurant and a wet kiss from Shamu.

A stabilizing economy and major new attractions are attributed factors in the park's rising attendance. During 1975, 1.95 million people visited the park.

Home Federal Expands

Home Federal Savings and Loan Assn. has opened its second El Cajon office.

To celebrate the Parkway Plaza Savings Office, giant (two by three foot) full-color California posters are being given away while supplies last.

The new 1,000 square-foot facility at 135 Fletcher Parkway, is located in Parkway Plaza East.

Home Federal opened the Parkway Plaza office to service savings customers. It will be open from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Mon.-Fri. and 10 a.m.-2 p.m. on Saturdays. Its service expands the savings services now offered by its office on South Magnolia st. which provides a full range of family financial services for its customers.

Home Federal has 50 offices throughout California with over $2 billion in assets and is the third largest federally-chartered savings and loan association in the U. S.

CHP Goes On Warpath Against the Reds

California Highway Patrol has warned vehicle owners that fog lamps with red lenses, recently marketed here, are illegal for California use.

California law provides that vehicles may not display any red light to the front. Fog lamps may be either white or amber.

First Lady Betty Ford Is CB's 'First Mama'

Using official stationery with a head of "10-20 The White House", First Lady Betty Ford sent a letter to the San Diego Construction Industry Freeway Patrol (CIFP) accepting an honorary membership in the CB HELP Club and the newly formed Citizens Alert Program. (10-20 is CB code for location).

In a letter addressed to Walt MacDonald, director of Operations for the CB HELP Club sponsored by CIFP Advancement Fund, Mrs. Ford expressed her appreciation for naming her an honorary member of the organization.

The first lady, who uses the handle (code name) of "First Mama", is listed as member number 2728 of the Freeway Patrol HELP Club and Citizens Alert Program.

In her letter dated December 16, she wrote, "Although I am unable to have an active role, it is a pleasure to have my name listed in this way, and I am grateful for this generous expression of friendship."

"I have very much enjoyed this special area of communication and am proud to be associated with the fine group of Americans banded together in a common network of mutual support and assistance."

"To all of your members, this is "First Mama" transmitting my gratitude and my hope for a good day today and a better day tomorrow."

The CB HELP Club is an oganization of nearly 3,000 Citizen Band radio operators in San Diego County who assist the CIFP by reporting disabled vehicles alongs the freeways of San Diego County. HELP Club members are also involved in the newly formed Citizens Alert Program, also sponsored by the Construction Industry, to combat crime.

College Bound

Findings released this month by the California Postsecondary Education Commission show percentages of California high school graduates who met the admission requirements of the University of California and the California State University and Colleges.

While the top 14.8 per cent of the state's high school graduates qualified for entry into the University system, the CSU network draws from the top 35 per cent.

Local Girls Among Ten On Mexico City Tour

Paula S. Dillivan of Spring Valley and Eileen Ewers of Lemon Grove are among ten Senior Girl Scouts chosen last spring by the San Diego-Imperial Council to go to Mexico. The two week trip begins Sunday when they leave for Mexico City on Western Airlines.

After 3 days of touring and sightseeing in the capital, they leave by taxi to Our Cabana, which is about 2 hours away, near the historic city of Cuernavaca in the state of Morelos.

Our Cabana is a residential program center owned and operated by the World Assn. of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. During their week's stay, the Girl Scouts will participate in a cultural program which includes hand arts. music and dancing, and sightseeing to historic places.

The girls will also be completing service projects. Each girl that stays at Our Cabana brings small presents from her native country. The gifts are saved and then distributed during the first days of the new year when Mexico is still celebrating the holidays. The Girl Scouts from San Diego will distribute presents to over 2,000 children in the low-income Gualupita Parish in Cuernavaca.

The Council pays one-fourth of each participant's expenses and the girls supply the rest. They have worked since September to raise their portion of the funds for the trip. They had a garage sale, a car wash, a bake sale, and also sold concessions at several Girl Scout family events.

Matrons, Patrons Dine With New Officers

Installation of 1977 officers will highlight the Saturday evening pot luck dinner of the Past Matrons and Patrons Assn. of the San Diego County Order of the Eastern Star at the Fairmount Recreation Center, 4077 Fairmount.

Mmes. Thomas Overby and George Sparkes will install new officers following a spaghetti pot-luck dinner.

Mrs. Arni Magnusson is new president; Mmes. Gwen Goodman and Nathan Wiggins, vice presidents; Mrs. Lorine Hansen, secretary and Mrs. Christian Brown, treasurer.

Host Families Sought For Exchange Students

The American Way of Life could become a realty for exchange students from Latin America who are lucky enough to find host families in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley areas.

Youth for Understanding, a private, non-profit international exchange program dedicated to foster greater international understanding, selects English speaking high school students eager to learn about the U. S., and matches them with American host families for six months.

Those interested in the exchange program may contact Ed Vanderhoven, Box 1044, Whittier, CA 90603 or call (714) 424-6028.

This Week's RECIPE

Jamming With Pears

You can transform winter pears into an exotic spread with the addition of pineapple and ginger. For a change of pace, try this jam as a mouthwatering glaze for spareribs. Simply mix jam in one-to-one proportions with soy sauce. Brush spareribs with the mixture during the last 30 minutes of cooking in oven.

PEAR, PINEAPPLE & GINGER JAM

- 1 quart diced, peeled and cored pears (4 large pears)
- 2 cans (1 lb., 4 oz.) crushed, undrained pineapple
- 2½ cups sugar
- 1 navel orange, cut in half and thinly sliced
- ½ cup chopped crystallized ginger
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- ⅛ teaspoon ground cloves

Combine all ingredients in a 3-quart saucepan. Simmer, stirring occasionally for 30 minutes, or to jellying point. Spoon into hot sterilized preserve jar. Process 10-15 minutes in water-bath canner. Store in dark, dry, cool area.

Yields about seven 8-oz. jars.

Auditions for 'Camelot'

Auditions are scheduled at Southwestern College January 3, 4, 5 at 7 p.m., promptly, in Mayan Hall Theatre on the college campus, 900 Otay Lakes Road, Chula Vista.

"Camelot" will be presented in March as the major musical comedy production for the spring semester.

Tryouts consist of reading, singing and dancing, according to the directors William Virchis and John Newhouse. Each competitor should bring his own music and be prepared to sing a song of their choice. An accompanist will be available.

Declares Dividends

San Diego Gas & Electric Company declared a quarterly dividend of 30 cents per share on the company's common stock payable January 15, to shareholders of record December 31.

The dividend is the same as for the last quarter.

New Officers for Rebekah Past Grands

The Rebekah's Past Noble Grands Assn., District 54, meets January 14, noon for a sack lunch at the Colina del Sol Recreation Center, 5319 Orange ave.

Mrs. Stella Bono and Pennelle Adams are hostesses.

Officers to be installed following the meal are Mrs. Stella Eckenroth, president; Mrs. Jackie Poole, vice president; Mrs. Zora Proudy, secreary; Mrs. Zora Proudy, secretary; and Mrs. Irene Figueroa, chaplain.

YOU AND YOUR PET

By Robert L. Stear, D.V.M.

Medical Terms for Pet Owners

An informed pet owner is a better pet owner, and understanding some basic medical terms can help you to stay informed. Here are samples that could prove useful in reading about your pet and discussing his health with your veterinarian.

The term "clinical" refers to a condition that you can see or measure easily. A "clinical diagnosis" is one based on outward, recognizable signs. Changes in a pet's behavior, loss of appetite, fever or paralysis are, for example, clinical signs of disease. A "laboratory diagnosis" on the other hand, is one that is based on an evaluation of tissue or material taken from the animal, such as blood or urine samples.

Diseases and conditions that attack your pet may be "acute" or "chronic." Acute symptoms are severe and immediately noticeable. Chronic problems may or may not be clinically apparent, but they recur frequently and continue for a long period of time.

Your veterinarian may use terms to describe your pet's condition which have endings such as "itis" or "osis." "Itis" usually means inflammation. Otitis is an ear inflammation and tracheo-bronchitis is an inflammation of the upper respiratory tract, also known as kennel cough. Conjunctivitis is an inflammation of the lining of the eye.

"Osis," on the other hand, refers to a disease condition that will usually get worse without treatment. A dog with parasitosis is infected with parasites such as worms, for example.

Your veterinarian may indicate that your pet's disease is "infectious," which means that germs or viruses causing the disease can be transferred from one pet to another. An "organic" disease, on the other hand, is not caused by germs or viruses, but originates within the animal itself and may be inherited. Canine distemper is an infectious disease that is caused by a virus. Canine hip dysplasia is a hereditary organic condition that involves improper development of the ball-and-socket joint of the hip.

To summarize, your dog could exhibit "clinical" signs that include intense scratching with crusts developing over areas of dry, thickened skin. Your veterinarian may take a scraping of the affected area and observe it under a microscope to arrive at a "laboratory diagnosis." He might identify a certain mite that has burrowed into the pet's skin causing a kind of "dermatosis."

Your veterinarian could then prescribe an effective treatment, asking you to confine your pet until the troublesome disease is cured, since it is highly "infectious."

I think you will find these common medical terms helpful in discussing your pet's problems with your veterinarian. Feel free to ask him about other terms you may not understand, because he appreciates an informed client. Your veterinarian will explain the situation in terms you can understand, helping you to be a better informed pet owner.

Mariners Vs. Winnipeg In WHA Hockey Tonight

The heady atmosphere of first place is an area long enjoyed by the Winnipeg Jets. The Bobby Hull-led club captured the World Hockey Association's AVCO Cup championship last season and is a heavy choice to repeat in 1976-77.

But, the San Diego Mariners have suddenly emerged atop the league's Western Division standings and have opened an eight point lead over the Jets. The Mariners are flying and Winnipeg is fuming.

This provides the setting for their meeting tonight at th San Diego Sports Arena. Faceoff is 7 p.m. and is to be broadcast over Radio KOGO (60).

Following Winnipeg, the San Diegans take a breather from league activity to host the touring Russian all-stars, Monday, Jan. 3, at 7 p.m.

Winnipeg has just returned from a mid-season appearance at the Izvestia Tournament in Moscow where it won one, lost two and tied one. During that interim, San Diego was busy winning seven of eight games and vaulting to the West Division leadership.

In addition to left winger Hull, the Jets display his linemates Ulf Nilsson and right winger Anders Hedberg. This trio accounted for 704 points during the past two seasons, making it the highest scoring line in major league today.

In addition to the league's best offense, 4.68 goals a game, Winnipeg has a goaltender Joe Daley, second on the WHA's career win list.

San Diego coach Ron Ingram directs a Mariner club that has the league's top power play percentage and stingiest penalty killing mark. It is scoring power plays at a 27.5 clip (28 in 102 tries) and has permitted only 14 in 102 opponent chances, a 13.9 figure.

While Winnipeg has netminder Daley, San Diego counters with Ernie Wakely, a former Jet whose 2.79 goals against average this season is second only to the 2.77 mark of Calgary's Don McLeod, is third on the career win list and whose 14 career league shutouts is tied for first place.

Russian Hockey Game On Delay Telecast

The hockey game between the San Diego Mariners and the U.S.S.R. team which will be played Monday at the Sports Arena, will be broadcast in its entirety on KPBS-TV, Channel 15, Tuesday, at 8 p.m.

Also, all-time WHA point leader Andre Lacroix has moved up to eighth place in this season's scoring race with 47 points while Joe Noris is 13th at 43.

The Mariner surge has come despite injuries that have sidelined winger Gary Veneruzzo, center Bob Dobek and defenseman Kevin Morrison and slowed wingers Wayne Rivers and John French. Veneruzzo is out at least another month with a shoulder separation while Dobek missed the last game with a bruised shoulder and Morrison has missed the last three with a knee ligament strain.

Ticket sales for Monday's Russian game are brisk, with approximately 7,000 already sold. Tickets, however, priced at $3, $5.50 and $7.50, are available in all ranges.

Co-Ed Softball League

Standings after three weeks of play in the Spring Valley Park and Rec. District Coed Softball League has Deere, J and the Sols leading one conference, and the Ofers leading the other.

Standings: on December 20: Deere, J, and the Sols 3-0; Appliances, Cuz Inn, Bloopers and Rose Lewis, 2-1, and Good-Ugly 1-1.

Ofers, 1-1; Wrecking and Sunday, 1-2; Ball Bats 0-2, and McMillan, Bad News, 0-3.

Play resumes January 9.

S/S/A OFFERS PLATFORM — Spring Valley resident Frank Shughrue, of 3416 Hartzel dr., tells members of the Sportscasters/Sportswriters Assn. about the plight of paralyzed Mt. Miguel High School student Kip Hayes. Hayes was injured in a league football game.
Shughrue attended the weekly meeting as guest of the Mariners who had a Kip Hayes Benefit a few nights earlier. As Shughrue (left) discusses the serious condition of the young athlete, Mariners owner Ray Kroc listens attentively. He then presented a check for $5,950, proceeds from the Hayes Night, and an additional $500 from Servomation, the firm which handles concessions in the Sports Arena where the WHA Mariners play.
The presentation brought the Hayes funds to $54,000.

Former Teenage 'Ace' Returns to 'Floppers'

IRWINDALE — Billy Meyer of Waco, Texas, will be making his return to the funny car ranks on Saturday at Irwindale Raceway in the "Nitro Bowl" funny car spectacular, as the former national record holder in the funny car class debuts his beautiful new Camaro-bodied flopper.

Meyer, now 22, first stepped into the drag racing limelight in 1977, when, as an 18-year-old rookie, "Waco Billy" set the funny car world on its ear by capturing the prestigious U. S. Manufacturer's Funny Car Championships at Orange County International Raceway, Meyer defeated one of the finest fields of funny cars ever put together on that night in November.

Meyer then became one of the most popular and respected funny car pilots in the nation through 1973 and 1974, and, at the U. S. Nationals in Indianapolis in 1974, Billy set a national record of 6.19 seconds. In fact, Meyer put together the four fastest times ever for a funny car with clockings of 6.19, 6.22, 6.26, and 6.28 at Indy. Meyer has not been behind the wheel of a nitro-burning flopper for over a year, and the Irwindale "Nitro Bowl" will mark the start of a brand new racing effort for the kid from Texas.

The "Nitro Bowl" victory for Meyer will not be an easy one with World Champion Don "The Snake" Prudhomme in the lineup. In addition to Prudhomme and Meyer, former U. S. Nationals champion Ed "The Ace" McCulloch of Fresno will be looking for the New Year's Day victory.

McCulloch will be on hand with his Dodge machine that placed runner-up to Prudhomme last year at the NHRA Fall nationals at Seattle and the NHRA World Finals at Ontario Motor Speedway.

Football, Baseball Stars Matched in Golf Classic

PHOENIX — Five home run sluggers, who belted 149 homers among them in 1976, will use that power, plus finesse, in the 11th annual American Airlines Golf Classic, announced tournament chairman Randall Malin.

The long hitters, headed by superstar third baseman Mike Schmidt of the Philadelphia Phillies, will show their talent January 28-30 at the McCormick Ranch Country Club in Scottsdale.

Schmidt, who has led the majors in homers for the last three years, belted 38.

Graig Nettles, All-Star third baseman of the New York Yankees and a member of the defending champion team with Bob Tucker of the New York Giants, led the American League with 32 homers.

Sal Bando of the Milwaukee Brewers and Reggie Jackson of the New York Yankees tied for second with 27. Jim Rice of the Boston Red Sox tied for fourth with 25.

Bando, former captain of the Oakland Athletics, won the Classic with Marv Hubbard, Oakland Raiders running back, in Palm Springs in 1975. Schmidt and Jackson have been strong contenders, while Rice will be making his debut.

One baseball and football player are partners in this 54-hole better-ball competition. First prize in this $30,000 event is $10,000, which the partners split.

Boat Rental Closed At Lake Morena

Boat rental on Lake Morena has been closed, according to the County Department of Parks and Recreation.

Boats were brought in for renovation during the spawning season and will be back in service the first weekend in April.

Fishing on the lake is still open and free to holders of a valid California fishing license. Hours are 7 a.m. until sundown.

Whale Excursions

Participants will get a close view of the 40-ton, slate-gray mammals passing close to the S. D. coast on their annual migration from the arctic to Baja. Charge is $4.50, and applications should be made in writing to the museum, P.O. Box 1390, S.D. 92112.

AWSDO to Attract 150 or More Pros

Sixteen more players from the top 60 on the PGA's 1976 money list have officially entered the Andy Williams San Diego Open golf tournament January 26-30 at Torrey Pines, tournament chairman Hal Tebbetts has announced.

They join defending champion J. C. Snead, Masters titlist Ray Floyd and U. S. Open winner Jerry Pate, earlier entries who ranked sixth, seventh and 10th on the earnings list respectively.

New entries from the top 30 and their rankings are Mark Hayes, 11, Jerry McGee, 16, Dave Hill, 19, Miller Barber, 23, Brian Allin, 26, Mike Morley, 29 and George Burns, 30.

Others are Larry Ziegler, 32, Joe Inman, 38, Gene Littler, 43, Lyn Lott, 48, Bob E. Smith, 49, Vic Regalado, 52, Kermit Zarley, 57, Bruce Crampton, 58 and Bob Murphy, 60.

Hayes won the Pensacula and Byron Nelson tournaments in 1976, Hill the Milwaukee, Allin the Pleasant Valley, Ziegler the NBC New Orleans and Inman the Kemper Open.

La Jolla's Littler is, of course, a former U. S. Open champ who has won 28 tour events and finished among the top 10 in the nation 10 times.

Crampton has been ranked in the first 15 eleven times and has won 15 tour events. Hill boasts 13 wins and has been in the exempt top 60 for 17 consecutive years. Barber owns nine victories and has been in the top 60 since 1963. Murphy has been in the first 60 of all of his 11 years on tour and has four wins.

San Diego's Regalado returned to exempt status after dropping out of the top 60 in 1975. He won the Pleasant Valley in 1974 and was 39th in earnings.

Norrie West, AWSDO executive director said there would be at least 150 pros in the Open and 150 more who would like to be.

Mini-Cyclists To Ride Sunday At 'Sun Classic'

The California Mini Motorcycle Club, for ages 16 and under, will host a demonstration TT/Motocross race on Harbor Island on Sunday for the Greater San Diego Amateur Hockey Association's Fun and Sun Classic.

The Classic brings more than 400 amateur hockey players, ages 18 and under, and their parents from Canada every year to compete in the tournament.

The race begins at 9 a.m. where a bayside track has been mapped out on East Harbor Island Drive. Spectators are welcome and admission is free.

There will be 17 events consisting of an open Powder Puff class, 50cc junior cycles, 83cc minicycles and 105cc minicycles. The classes are divided into age groups, stock or modified, and riding ability.

Featured at the demonstration will be Grand National Champion Jon-Jon Besisle, 9, on his modified junior cycle and Brian Antonnacci, 12, also a Grand National Champion, on his 83cc stock minicycle. Both riders gained national recognition last August at the Grand National Championship Run-offs in Springfield, Missouri, when they won their respective class.

Also featured is Scott Burnworth, 14, entered in three classes. Scott is the local minicycle favorite who recently won the CMMC Minicycle Championship for the third consecutive year.

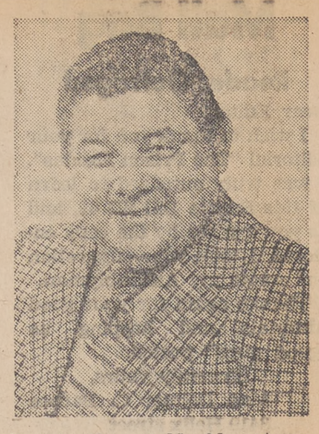
TAKE FIVE



By John E. Wirges

It was the strangest feeling in the world. Almost unexplainable. Easily unintelligent. Certainly absurd. Absolutely outrageous.

There I was, completely sober and in reasonably sound mental health, yet I was pulling for the Oakland Raiders to win a football game.

I'm a died-in-the-wool, hometown, deepseated Charger fan since day one, who thinks the greatest feat in the world is to rub the Raiders right into the dirt and I was actually pulling for Oakland to win. I almost felt like a traitor.

Forgive me Tommy Prothro. Pardon me, Gene Klein. Mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa, I have no excuses. I just lost my head.

How could I pull for a team that has drubbed my hometown heroes 16 times in 17 games with only a tie back in 1970 to break the losing monotony? It was disloyal. Why, throughout San Diego county such an act is considered unAmerican.

But there I was, rootin' on the Raiders against the Pittsburgers. To my measure it was California against Pennsylvania, the West against the East, Sunshine and warmth, even the Oakland variety, against ice and snow and winter wind.

It was a life style I was rootin' home. My choice to live here against the freeze and coldness of where I was born. Pittsburgh is just two steps on the line south from Buffalo and the trip in either direction is hardly worth the effort.

The Raiders have a well-earned tag of being nasty mean in search of winning games. If that's a fault, I'd like to see the Charger troops drink water deep from the cup.

I don't know Raider coach John Madden as a mean man. He gets involved in the heat of the battle, but even when he defensed things for Don Coryell at San Diego State he had gentle ways.

Madden and Sid Hall, who went to the Raiders with him, but has since returned to Montezuma Mesa, would smile at pretty girls walking about the campus, say nice things about the coming opponent and drink beer out of a can as God intended.

Madden hasn't changed, nor has Hall, for that matter. And it was from this point of view I was pulling for the Oaklands to rust the bottom out of the Steelers.

One kept hearing as how the Steelers were undermanned and suffering with lamed and maimed super studs. It seems the Pittsburgers were saying things would have been different if they had the likes of Franco Harris (sidelined with bruised ribs) and Rocky Bleier (out with wounded great toe).

The Chief of the Pittsburgers, Chuck Noll, said playing without his stars was like fightin' a war without weapons.

That's carrying things a bit far. The football season is 23 games long for Super Bowl contenders and along the way everybody has to overcome a bunch of hurts.

Maybe I don't remember so good, but it seems like just a few weeks ago everybody was saying they wondered how Madden and the Raiders were loggin' all those wins with everybody that was anybody on their club getting banged up and taking sick leave.

What's the loss of Franco for one game against a team that lost Marv Hubbard for the season. Doesn't anyone remember Raider hurts?

Maybe just because Madden went along without saying how much his club would miss this guy or that and how he just keeps his team up, ready and winning, Oakland injuries don't count.

In your ear with a bucket of beer, boys, John Madden is the stuff winners are made of and the pick here is for Madden and his madmen to go all the way and win Super XI.

Smoking Ban Lacks Support As Stadium Execs Study Issue

The San Diego Stadium Authority on Monday decided to consult Stadium tenants before attempting to solve the smoking problem it feels exists at the facility.

George Stevens, Authority member, asked that staff be requested to report on whether there could be a no-smoking area set aside but the vote went 7-1 against the proposal.

Ivor deKirby wanted to explore the possibility of canvassing season ticket holders to ascertain whether they would exchange their tickets for ones in no-smoking areas.

He was not supported in the effort.

Deborah Mazzanti, chairman of the Authority, requested the Stadium manager to ascertain the feelings of the tenants concerning a smoking ban and report at the next meeting.

Chacon Seeks Citizen Input

Citizens' suggestions and recommendations on political issues before the new State Legislature in Sacramento are welcomed by Assemblyman Peter R. Chacon, a recent report stated.

Property tax relief, death penalty, major land use legislation and state transportation are among the major issues facing the State Legislature in its new 2-year session.

Increases in local government spending and assessed value of residential property as well as a pending Supreme Court ruling on its school finance decision add new aspects to an old problem and might call for other forms of taxation.

Another ruling, this one by the State High Court, declared mandatory death sentence laws for certain types of murders unconstitutional and poses new problems to the new Legislature.

It will also focus on protection of California's prime agricultural land from urban development and the conflict over freeway development policies.

Girl Cagers in 3rd Game Mon.

The Spring Valley Park & Rec. Dist.'s Girl's Basketball League will play the third game of the season Monday at 7:15 at Monte Vista High-school Gym.

It's better than money in the bank!

"In fact, we urged all consumers to transfer their savings from banks because they give savers lower yields, often have outrageous and unnecessary charges. On the other hand, most savings and loans offer higher yields, have fewer charges, and often have generous service packages."

This statement is from an interview with a spokesperson for San Francisco Consumer Action about their new book... "It's In Your Interest."* It points out just what we've been telling you for years ...that money in a bank isn't doing the job it should be.

Incorporation Makes Headlines in Lemon Grove During 1976

Grove resident, learned he would receive the Kiwanis Club's International Honor Club Award for Multiple Service, in behalf of the San Diego Kiwanis, over which he presided.

Former Miss Lemon Grove Carol Klee, 1974-75, announced her engagement to Gregory Flatmo of El Cajon. They were wed in July.

Proponents of Lemon Grove incorporation decided to end the dispute with La Mesa over Vista La Mesa by recommending a La Mesa annexation measure be placed on the November ballot. They awaited word from the County and LAFCO.

Lemon Grove School officials learned that the District's operating budget for the coming school year would top $5 million for the first time. Meanwhile, teachers submitted a lengthy contract proposal calling for salary increases that would be 18 per cent more costly to the district.

Santee transplant Judy Koenig announced she was giving up her "Miss Lemon Grove" crown and moving back to Santee. First runner-up Mary Jo Byrne picked up the banner for Lemon Grove.

June

A "pyramid" system of soliciting for contributions to the Mt. Miguel Community Aquatics Center fell victim to a common falacy in such schemes — a core group ran out of contributors.

The Effective Problem Intervention Center, EPIC, announced plans to enter the recreation business by sponsoring after-school programs at three Lemon Grove sites.

Bills poured into the Chamber of Commerce office and left the Old Time Days Committee with a $650 loss instead of an expected $1800 surplus. A horse show which ended up $800 in the red was the chief cause.

Ed Gumkowski bought Popular Deli from Michael Schwartz and changed the name to Gumbo's.

Karen and George Zumwalt turned over their Imperial ave. lock & key shop to Guy and Millie DeAngelo.

LAFCO delayed a decision on the Vista La Mesa annexation vote, pending proper meeting notice.

Rev. Thomas Rothhaar of United Methodist Church, Lemon Grove, announced intentions to end his ministry at the church to accept a calling at a Pacific Beach church.

Lemon Grove school officials hired a professional negotiator to arbitrate with employees under new collective bargaining guidelines. Teacher representatives called the $4,300 expense unjustifiable.

Backyard gardener Mrs. Virgil Trebbien was pulling turnips out of her garden that were 15" around. Garbage burried in the garden was the secret, she said.

Eighty-one graduating seniors at Mt. Miguel High were honored during an awards ceremony. Class valedictorian Mary Maca was selected one of the nation's 150 most outstanding high school honor students by the American Academy of Achievement.

June ended in the midst of a late-August type heat wave pushing temperatures close to 100° and taxing local electricity and water supplies.

Higher costs and lower state aid led the school board to halt bus rides for distant junior high students effective in the fall. About 150 were to be affected.

Past-president Lester Cleer was named "Lion of the Year" by the local Lions Club.

July

LAFCO okayed a freeway 94 boundary for Lemon Grove and a La Mesa annexation try for VLM.

Lemon Grove Sheriff's detectives Doug Henderson and Florence Helms broke a case of nearly 100 burglaries following a lead in Lemon Grove. Items in excess of $100,000 in value were involved.

Lt. George Dodson was promoted Captain of the Sheriff's substation here, replacing Capt. Hank Shilpp who was promoted to head Central Detectives downtown. Shilpp died unexpectedly a week later.

Fire caused $35,000 damage to the Anthony Conforte home on Church st. and a brush blaze spread into the Skyline dr. home of Craig Lake, causing $6,000 damage.

The County decided to move the Lemon Grove branch of the County Library to a yet-to-be-built shopping center on Broadway at Washington st. The new facility, whenever it is built, will offer almost three times the space of the present building.

Lavicio's deli was robbed of $1000 cash overnight.

Studies by local community schools showed that a swimming pool was the area's highest-ranking need.

August

can be reduced from two-thirds approval to half.

Stan Boney, son of a former supervisor, jumped into the forefront of the coming fray for Supervisor Dick Brown's post. In the end, Boney ran a creditable third.

February Festival of Fun was a project of the S.V. Park and Recreation Advisory Council spearheaded by Herb Ketell, the group's president. "Spring Valley needs more fun," Ketell opined.

The first issue of THE MINIPRESS, a newspaper published by the Kempton school's 4th, 5th and 6 graders, was added to the February 12 issue of THE SPRING VALLEY BULLETIN. Georgette Jauregui, a Kempton teacher, used the project to heighten students' interest in spelling and community matters.

Two homes burned in Spring Valley on consecutive days. One was on Helix st. The other on Maria ave.

A simulated fire disaster was secretly plotted by the six jurisdictions of the Heartland Mutual Aid group and the assessment by the various chiefs was that the departments worked efficiently.

The imaginary disaster was the huge U.S. Elevator Co. facility at Sweetwater Springs and Jamacha blvds. Just as an extra surprise element, the emergency was called the next night. That, too, worked well.

In a bid to get more people to ride the bus, 14 "landing pads" for San Diego Transit buses were approved for the Spring Valley area by the County's Comprehensive Planning Organization.

Supervisors, after several years of complaints, finally agreed to take a look at the traffic situation at the Spring Valley Swap Meet. The meet itself is clean, but it attracts so many shoppers that several streets nearby are blocked. Later the situation was eased but not eliminated. The meet is near Akard st. and Quarry rd in La Presa.

Plans for a landfill (dump) for county residents on a 323-acre site near Jamul east of Steele Canyon road were snubbed by residents living near the proposed site. They formed a group to oppose the location.

March

300 students of Bancroft Elementary school laid out a 3,200 mile course — from here to Philadelphia — and ran it at the school grounds. 8 laps equalled one mile. The project sharpened the youngsters' interest in geography as well as their physical well-being.

Larry Symonds and Burt Hodge were elected president and vice-president respectively of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. He succeeded Maurice Peterson who replaced Glenn Boelter who resigned. Charlene Anderson and Naomi Marshall were re-elected as treasurer, secretary.

Two ladies of the Huntress Massage Parlor on Troy st. were interrupted in their work by police. They were charged with soliciting for prostitution and jailed. Before the officers completed the paperwork, the two were back at work.

The Valle de Oro Community Planning Group began revising their five-phase general plan and announced meetings for every Wednesday into the foreseeable future.

The Spring Valley Fire Protection District station on Troy st. was dedicated in the name of Stan Totten, long time member of the district's board. Totten was a volunteer in 1954 and served the district many years. He died in January while watching television and had not been ill at all.

The Monte Vista High School Boosters club reduced the span between what is in hand and what is needed to $21,000.

It was a section of a three-phase project by which a stadium complex at the school is being completed. The Boosters are said to have generated nearly $400,000 for improvements in the past 11 years.

A 16-year old youth, playing a game of Russian roulette with a gun, lost. The youth, who lived on El Canto st., was displaying his bravery in the company of three other teenagers.

Five boys between the ages of 13 and 15 were charged with 8 counts of burglary. Three of them were 13.

A Spring Valley man was pronounced dead after on altercation outside a bar on Jamacha blvd. The discussion started inside the tavern and ended in a stabbing in the parking lot. The knife wielder was also a Spring Valley resident.

A Community college was said to be in the plans for Monte Vista Ranch just west of Cottonwood golf course—if a bond issue were to pass. A site was already chosen for it — at Jamacha rd. and State 94.

The County Assessor told Spring Valley home owners that their property value had increased substantially. He also noted that the value would increase their tax burden.

A major fund-raising effort to provide a swimming pool at Mt. Miguel High school was announced at a kick-off dinner. $100,000 is needed to start it; $160,000 to complete it. The group has $19,000 in the bank.

May

Abraham Lincoln Hart marked his 100th birthday this month. He was named after President Lincoln who was a close friend of the family. He lives in a Spring Valley rest home. "The first 100 years were the hardest," he said.

Casa de Oro mounted its sixth annual Flag Day Parade with teevee weatherman Doug Oliver as marshal.

A Spring Valley construction worker became entangled with the minions of IRS. It cost him $2,000. That was the fine. He will also have to repay more than $15,000 in back taxes.

Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin, who would be re-elected in November, presented a flag to the Spring Valley Kiwanis club. The flag had been flown over the White House.

The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce announced "Clean-Up Time" as a week-long effort. Scouts and Campfire Girls took part in it.

June

The proposed highway 125 should be a full freeway and 54 an expressway, the Valle de Oro Citizens Executive Committee decided. Both have a completion date of 1995.

A Casa de Oro theatre operator who was making money on X-rated pictures, decided to change the policy to straight, standard movies and toss in drawings, live music and other attention grabbers. Before the years was up he was back to X-rated shows. PG didn't pay.

The Soroptimist Club, which meets in Spring Valley, installed Dortha Thompson president. The club, comprised of business and professional women, has members in both Spring Valley and Lemon Grove. The ceremony was at OxBow Inn.

A Spring Valley woman who had bought a 1960 Pontiac from the U.S. Customs office at auction, discovered she was the legal owner of five bricks of illegal marijuana that had been hidden in a compartment of the car. Customs ordered sheriff's deputies to destroy the 'pot' and returned the car to the owner.

July

Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin asked for a restudy of the Spring Valley Flood Plain after residents of the area charged that many faults were listed in the plan. Flooding never occurred in Spring Valley, residents insist.

Three Spring Valley girls were chosen to represent their community at Girls State. They were Kathleen Roberts, Arlene Armandarez and Viki Vigus.

The first section of the Freeway 94-Campo rd. ramping system was opened. It represented a $12 million cost.

County officials (LUER), after weeks of study, said the S.V. Swap Meet didn't create a problem big enough to cause revocation of its license.

State Forestry, this month, ceased to provide fire protection for unincorporated areas. Those areas not now within a local fire protection district would be forced to join or institute one.

August

A snake dancer was arrested at a S.V. bar. Athena Buck, 25, who danced topless while snakes were entwined about her body, was jailed 12 hours and her snakes confiscated. Later they were returned.

CALTRAK Doubles Train Patronage Between Los Angeles, San Diego

Many people are riding the train between Los Angeles and San Diego—nearly twice as many according to State Transportation Director Ardiana Gianturco.

Nearly 35,000 people rode San Diego-Los Angeles commuter trains in November 1976, Gianturco announced, an increase of 94 per cent over November 1975 when 23,236 rode.

"The San Diego-Los Angeles rail service is now carrying more passengers than any other rail line running west of Washington, D.C.," he said.

Since September, when CALTRANS made funds available for a fourth daily train (dubbed CALTRAK San Diegan), passenger volume has increased almost 80 per cent over the previous year to more than 125,000. Ridership on the CALTRAK trains alone has increased 1500 since its first month of operation.

"People who have been able to switch to the trains are not the only ones helped by the service.

"Rail service increasingly will relieve pressure on limited highway space, reducing congestion and delay for people who must use the road for commerce, business or recreation," Gianturco said.

Interstate 5, the highway link between the two metroplises, is frequently jammed with travelers, particularly on weekends.

CALTRANS plans further improvement to the passenger train service, including renovations of the track and passenger stations along the route, providing a feeder service to stations along the route and adding more trains to the existing service.

Two Service Stations In Separate Robberies

Two area service stations were held up on consecutive nights, sheriff's deputies reported.

On Friday, December 17, about 7:15 p.m. two white, young males visited the Apollo Gas and Service station at 8901 Jamacha rd. in Spring Valley.

One bought a dollar's worth of gasoline and held up Adam A.. Brifgarter, 20, of 918 La Presa ave. using an automatic pistol to emphasize his demand. The other ordered the attendant back into the office and forced him to give him the money on hand — about $100 in coins and bills.

The men were between 10-24 years of age. One had a mustache and beard. The other had a Fu Manchu-type mustache.

On Saturday about 8:45 p.m. a motorcycle rider bought a small amount of gasoline in a can from Roy Douglas Wilson, 25, of La Mesa, who manages the Go Lo Service station at 6901 Federal blvd., Lemon Grove.

He pointed a small calibre revolver at Wilson, tossed a crumpled paper bag on his desk in the office and ordered him to "put the money in the bag."

Drive Against Birth Defects Opens Jan. 1

A major health campaign, the San Diego-Imperial chapter of the March of Dimes, opens its annual fund raising fight against birth defects on Saturday.

"We're counting on the 1977 drive to be our most successful yet," said Joan Embery, who begins a second term as honorary campaign chairman.

"But to succeed, we need the help of all citizens — every contribution is important. Added up, they represent a big step in the march against birth defects — our country's major child health problem."

The chief fund-raising event is the annual Mothers March later in the month, but there are other way to contribute to the drive, according to Embery, the ambassador for the San Diego Zoo and Wild Animal Park.

Funds raised from the annual appeal are important in continuing programs in research and education at Scripps and Salk Institutes.

Chapter-supported medical services, research, community services and public and professional health education are all aimed at protecting the unborn and newborn.

Volunteers are encouraged to call the March of Dimes at 284-1166.

Seventh Rabid Bat Sets County Record

The sixth and seventh cases of rabid bats have been confirmed by the County Veterinarian breaking last year's record for rabid bats found in San Diego County.

The most recent cases were found in Mission Valey and in Fallbrook. Previously this year, rapid bats were found in Ramona, Lakeside, Jamul, Point Loma and Fallbrook.

Six rabid bats were reported and confirmed in the County in 1975.

County Veterinarian Dr. H. C. Johnston cautions persons not to touch bats even if they appear to be dead. Dr. Johnston said the bat should be pushed into a container with a stick and transported to the County Veterinarian's Laboratory for examination. The County Veterinarian Office is located at 5555 Overland ave. in Kearny Mesa.

The three County animal shelters provide weekly rabies vaccination clinics for dogs. The San Diego Veterinary Association will also be providing neighborhood evening rabies clinics for dogs in January and clinics for cats in Febuary and March. Rabies vaccinations for cats and dogs may also be obtained from any veterinarian.

A County animal shelter is located at 5821 Swetwater rd.,

Jurors Pay Doubled But Mileage Pay is Cut

The San Diego County Board of Supervisors unanimously approved in principle a proposal to raise the payment to trial jurors from five dollars to $10 per day.

The additional five dollars would be paid to jurors instead of current reimbursement of mileage costs one way.

The action was taken by the Board after it was determined that the current rate of compensation to jurors was less than individual out-of-pocket expenses accumulated during jury service.

A report from the Office of the County Jury Commissioner said that the average payment per day for each juror is $7.10. The report also indicated that the average juror is not compensated for even the bare minimum costs of transportation and parking.

The Board also instructed the director of the Department of Intergovernmental Affairs to secure the introduction of legislation granting the Board of Supervisors the authority to establish the compensation rate for trial jurors in San Diego County. This authority currently belongs to the State.

The Board also adopted a resolution waiving the County's right to seek State reimbursement for increased local costs of juror compensation should the local control proposal be enacted by the State Legislature.

Thirty-seven counties within the State currently have the authority to set the rate of payment for local jurors.

Dog Rabies Vaccinations Here in Jan.

The time is nearing for the annual rabies vaccination program conducted by the County Veterinary Medical Assn., an inexpensive inoculation for dogs.

The rabies clinics for dogs are scheduled throughout the month of January at 59 locations including one each in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Lemon Grove dog owners are urged to bring their pets to San Altos School, 1750 Madera st., on Wednesday, January 12, 7 to 9 p.m.

Spring Valley clinic is held at the Casa de Oro Fire Station, 10102 Ramona dr. on Tuesday, January 4, 7 to 9 p.m.

Shots are also administered at other county locations through January 26, in case dog owners miss the local clinic hours.

Vacination fee is $2, no checks accepted. Dogs must be at least four months old, be on a leash and controlled by their owner. Dog licenses will be available at most clinics during vaccination hours.

The vaccine used is said to be the best available and is good for 2½ years.

Veterinarians who vaccinate at the clinics volunteer their time as a public service.

3 Vacancies On HRC Board

The San Diego County Human Relations Commission is accepting applications from area citizens to fill three vacancies on its governing board.

The Commission is the governmental body charged with the responsibility of promoting equal opportunity and equality for all persons and with fostering mutual respect and understanding among the various ethnic groups in the county.

The governing board is comprised of 12 citizen members and 3 governmental appointees. To be eligible for nomination a person must have a special interest and qualification in the field of human relations. The term of service is three years.

The board meets regularly to establish commission policy and monitor progress of existing programs. Board members are remunerated for attending specified metings.

Interested persons must contact the Commission offices, 3730 Fifth Avenue, San Diego. Deadline for filing is December 31.

Realtors Report Typical Home Price is $51,725

Latest figures from the California Association of Realtors show that homes continue to get more expensive in California.

The median price of an existing home in the state took another leap in October to $51,725, representing a 2.8 per cent jump over the previous month.

It was the second consecutive month in which the median price of an existing home has increased — and 2.8 per cent both months.

September's median resale home price was $50,298.

Statistics were announced by CAR's Research Department, which conducts monthly surveys to check current housing trends.

The October increase means the average price of an existing home was $1,427 more than September. Compared to a year ago, the statistics show an even wider gap since the price of a resale home in October 1975 was $42,300, or 22.3 per cent lower than October 1976.

The monthly survey is based on data taken from a cross section of 31 boards of realtors throughout California, representing 36 per cent of CAR's membership.

Existing home sales in the $40,000 to $50,000 price range continued to lead all other classes with 22 per cent of those who bought homes in October making purchases in this range.

A drop of two per cent in this category was recorded over September. The next most popular range was $50,000 to $60,000, 17.5 per cent of the October market.

Homes in the $30- to $40,000 range were third, attracting 16.4 per cent.

One- and two-bedroom homes constituted 20.9 per cent of existing home sales. Three-bedroom homes accounted for 54.2 per cent of all sales and four-bedroom homes, 24.9 per cent.

The number of resale homes sold by the reporting boards totaled 8,493.

IRS TAX ANSWERS?

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local U.S. Internal Revenue Service office and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The questions are those most frequently asked IRS.

Q. I bought a car and was told by a friend that the auto sales tax I paid is deductible. If this is true, how do I claim the deduction?

A. The auto sales tax you pay may be deducted, but only if you itemize on Schedule A, Form 1040. The sales tax paid on the auto may be added to the deduction you take for general sales tax using the optional sales tax table.

However, in states where the auto sales tax rate is higher than the general sales tax rate, you may deduct only that part of the auto sales tax equal to the tax levied at the general sales tax rate.

Q. An eye doctor prescribed eyeglasses for me. I know that the doctor's fee is deductible, but can I deduct the cost of the eyeglasses and transportation?

A. The eye examination and eyeglasses are considered medical treatment, and the cost of the eyeglasses may be a medical deduction.

The deduction may be claimed when you itemize your deductions on Schedule A, Form 1040. The expense is deducted only in the year you paid it, and you must keep a careful record of your expenses.

In addition, the cost of transportation to and from the doctor's office is deductible.

For more information, see IRS Publication 502, Deduction for Medical and Dental Expenses, available at most IRS offices.

Q. When I cashed certificates of deposit before the due date, I had to forfeit some interest as a penalty. Should I include the interest lost, when I report on Form 1040 the interest paid to me by the bank?

A. You must report all interest paid to you during the year you made the premature withdrawal of your certificates of deposit, without subtracting the interest lost. Then, the amount of interest lost as a penalty for premature withdrawal is reported on Form 1040, in arriving at your adjusted gross income. This deduction is taken even though you do not itemize deductions.

Fact Sheet Explains Extended Civil Rights

A fact sheet explaining the Ralph Civil Rights Act of 1976, Civil Code Section 51.7, is available free of charge at the City of San Diego Community Relations Department.

The new law guarantees each individual the right to freedom from discrimination, violence or threat of violence because of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, sex or involvement in a labor dispute.

The law also stipulates that the court can award financial damages of up to $10,000 to the victim of such discrimination or violence.

Copies of the fact sheet may be obtained by calling 239-9341.

Elevator Firm Strikes It Rich In Las Vegas

SPRING VALLEY — Contracts totalling more than $1.8 million have been awarded U. S. Elevator by three large hotels in Las Vegas, Nevada, the Southern California company announced.

Largest of the contracts was worth more than a million dollars and includes six high-speed passenger elevators and three hydraulic units plus a planned lifting stage at the Flamingo Hilton Hotel. The elevators are being manufactured at Cubic Corporation's subsidiary plant here.

U. S. Elevator also landed a separate contract worth more than $450,000 for elevators at the Flamingo Hilton and a $300,000 contract for a Las Vegas Holiday Inn.

Year-Round Renewal System Eases DMV Workload Crunch

Owners of California's 16.4 million cars, trucks, trailers and motorcycles are having little trouble adjusting to the Department of Motor Vehicles new year-round registration program.

That was the report from Motor Vehicles Director Herman Sillas following the successful operation during the first three months of DMV's program to register vehicles throughout the year.

Under the year-round program, DMV has eliminated the old once-a-year workload crunch. Renewal deadlines now occur on a staggered basis each month.

Sillas reminded motorists that there is no longer a grace period for those who fail to renew their registration on time.

The department has mailed about 1.3 million potential renewal notices each month since June.

"Changing over to the new system is going smoother than we ever thought possible," Sillas said. "About 80 per cent of the potential renewals have been returned without problems."

"To keep from paying a penalty, equal to 50 per cent of the fee, all renewal fees must be paid in full on or before the expiration date," Lobue emphasized. "Should a deadline fall on a weekend or holiday, fees may be paid on the first day after that."

Registration renewal fees may be paid by mail or in person at the nearest DMV office.

KPBS Award Winner

Ken Kramer, KPBS-FM San Diego, has won a Golden Mike Award for his short feature, "Summertime," a whimsical, word/portrait view of the summer season. The program was aired locally, and on "Pacific Weekend," a regional program produced at KPBS-FM.

KPBS was the only radio station in San Diego to win an award this year. The Golden Mike is Kramer's third.

Visitors Bring $800 Million Into SD Area

"Be kind to tourists" is an appropriate motto for residents of the San Diego area.

Tourism revenue will total $794 million in the County by year end, according to preliminary estimates by the Convention and Visitors Bureau.

The estimate represents an 11.5 per cent gain over last year, says Al Anderson, president of the Bureau.

Other items:

Average employment during 1976 rose 5.8 per cent to 49,758, up from 47,030.

Visitor industry employment has gained for the past eight years.

Airport arrivals rose 8.4 per cent. Hotel-motel average occupancy rose 5 per cent.

Mexican border crossings were up 11.1 per cent and attendance at 11 major attractions in the area rose 10 per cent.

None of the major indicators of the tourism industry failed to gain in 1976, Anderson said.

Milk Prices To Rise Here

Milk prices are expected to increase here this month as a result of rising costs at the grassroots level of the dairy industry.

State Food and Agriculture Director L. T. Wallace announced that effective December 12, price paid to dairy farmers by handlers was increased 42 cents per hundredweight for drinking milk (Class 1 usage).

However, prices for fluid milk used in making dairy by-products was reduced from between one-half cent per hundredweight to as much as 32 cents per hundredweight, depending on the product manufactured.

The average reductions for milk used for by-products was estimated at 11 cents per hundredweight.

The increase in drinking milk price was the first since April, 1974, and was necessary because of increased milk production costs during the past two and a half years.

Reports indicate that retail milk prices are expected to increase this month to compensate for the increased wholesale costs which are already being passed on from milk processors to retailers.
